Re: CHARLES LUCAS

CARLOS P. JOHNSON, a private in the U.S. Army who sought asylum with Soviet Forces in Austria and later voluntarily surrendered to British Forces in Berlin, Germany, has furnished the following data concerning captioned individual:

CHARLES LUCAS is colored and was in the U.S. Army in Germany. He is very quiet and about 26 or 27 years old. I believe he was a baker by trade - possibly in the army. He is not a member of the Free German Youth. He resides in Bautzen, Germany.

Transmitted herewith are two copies of a memorandum submitted by the Liaison Representative, Salzburg, Austria, dated 1-21-54, relative to Lucas. You will note that the memorandum contains information that Lucas, a former member of the U.S. Army in Germany, is now residing in Bautzen (Soviet zone), Germany.

Check of Bufiles reveals information from another source which possibly relates to Lucas. This appears in a copy of a report of Clyde E. Taylor, Special Agent, Counter Intelligence Corps, Salzburg, Austria, dated 6-4-52, which copy was submitted to the Bureau by the Liaison Representative at Salzburg. This report sets forth the results of interrogation of John Joseph Shadosky, a U.S. soldier who entered the Soviet zone of Austria in October, 1951, and fled from Bautzen in May, 1952, after being held by Soviet authorities for a time. The following is Shadosky's information relative to Lucas.

Several days after arriving in Bautzen, Shadosky met another former member of the U.S. Army. This colored ex-soldier identified himself as Private Charles "Charley" Lucas, from an unknown trucking company in the Frankfurt (Germany) Military Post. Lucas told Shadosky that he had been kept under restriction for a long time by his unit commander in Frankfurt and one day decided to flee to the Soviet sector. Lucas drove his private automobile toward Eastern Germany. Just prior to reaching the Soviet zone his car broke down, and Lucas continued on foot, crossing at an unspecified point into East Germany. Lucas claimed that he originally lived in Dayton, Ohio, and had been a truck driver in civilian life. Now Lucas is employed as a baker in a Konsum bakery in Bautzen, Germany, and earns 350 to 400 marks monthly.

Shadosky stated further that, according to Lucas, the Soviets assisted Lucas in bringing his white German girl friend from Western Germany to live with him at an unknown address in Bautzen. They have a small daughter, whom they keep in a kindergarten because Mrs. Lucas is also employed. Shadosky claimed that Lucas has the best of quarters, and in addition to earning a respectable wage as a baker receives other earnings from participating in boxing matches throughout Eastern Germany. Lucas said he had fought in boxing matches several times in the Soviet sector of Berlin. He was said to be happy and satisfied with his current life and told Shadosky that, as a Negro, he was living far better in his present environment than he would be able to live as a Negro in the United States.

Shadosky also stated that he visited Lucas several times when the latter was training in the FDJ (Freie Deutsche Jugend--Free German Youth) gymnasium in Bautzen, and that Lucas was teaching several young Germans to box. Lucas informed Shadosky that he had been in Bautzen for more than a year. He said that in August, 1951, the Soviets had sent him to Berlin to attend the World Youth Festival. The Soviets reportedly considered Lucas a representative of the Communist Party of the United States and paid him and his wife all their expenses, in addition to their regular pay, while attending this meeting. In addition, Lucas was given special protection by the Volkspolizei (People's Police) to make certain that no attempt was made by "gangsters" from the west sector of Berlin to take Lucas back to the control of United States authorities in that city. Lucas reportedly told Shadosky that as soon as the Soviets trusted him (Shadosky) they would make his life much more pleasant. (105-1871641)

Since Lucas' permanent residence is reported to have been in Dayton, Ohio, you should check your office indices and other logical sources for information concerning him.

Identifying background information on Lucas has been requested from the Department of the Army. When this is received, it will be forwarded to you. Any additional information which may be derived from Bufiles, on the basis of complete identifying information, will also be furnished to you.

When you have received the results of the investigation outlined above, you should submit a report, in a form suitable for dissemination, containing all available information relative to Lucas.

Re: CHARLES C. LUCAS
ASN 15 260 715

Confidential Source T-1, a United States Government agency with investigative jurisdiction abroad, furnished the following information with regard to the subject.

FOIA b 3 - 50 USC 3024 i 1 - Intelligence Sources and Methods

On November 28, 1951, the 14th Military Police Criminal Investigations Division furnished the following data relative to an arrest warrant issued on subject:

"On 10 August 1951 the 14th MP CID conducted a raid on a tailor shop at the Hammelburg Military Sub-Post. This raid was in connection with black market activities. As a result of the raid it was discovered that subject was involved in illegal script transactions and sale of commissary items. Involved with subject was ANNELESE KLEPA and an unnamed female. Subject and the unnamed female disappeared from Hammelburg on or about 12 August 1951. Subject, at a later date, was reported to be living in the East Zone of Germany."

On March 31, 1952, EDITH DOLENSKY voluntarily contacted agent of U. S. intelligence at Berlin to report she had just arrived at Berlin from the East Zone of Germany in what she described as an escape from her boy friend (subject) and from living conditions at Leipzig, Germany. According to DOLENSKY, during the latter part of 1951, subject, escaping from arrest, crossed the border into the East Zone of Germany in his car at Meiningen. DOLENSKY stated that she found out later that subject planned the route and had intended to flee to the East Zone of Germany. After being apprehended by the Soviets at Meiningen, she and subject were taken to Potsdam. DOLENSKY stated that subject voluntarily requested political asylum and forced her to do the same. Subject, after being granted political asylum, went on a speaking tour praising both the living conditions and the government of the East Zone of Germany. DOLENSKY continued that after some fourteen days spent in the Potsdam area, she and subject were taken to Bautzen, East Zone of Germany, where they were given jobs. DOLENSKY concluded that she decided to flee to the West because she was fed up with both subject and the East Zone of Germany.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted] reflected that subject, a United States Negro soldier, was living with a Czech woman, at the Hotel Stadt Bautzen, Bautzen, East Zone of Germany.

[redacted] reported that he knew subject, a Negro U. S. Army deserter living at Platz der Roten Armes, Bautzen, from February, 1952, until [redacted] return to [redacted] in April, 1952.

On June 26, 1952, EDITH DOLENSKY prepared and signed a statement concerning her association and knowledge of subject. Pertinent excerpts from this statement are quoted:

"I was told by many people, including men of his own company, that subject had tried to commit suicide by slashing his wrists before I became acquainted with him. Subject tried to desert from his unit several times. On these unauthorized visits, he would go out into the woods and live like an animal for several days at a time.

"Subject told the People's Police, East Zone of Germany, that he left the West of his own free will because he wanted to get away from discrimination in the Army. Subject is very happy at Bautzen, has no intention of leaving, and is well liked by the local people at Bautzen. Subject cooperated with the Soviets wholeheartedly, and, in turn, was given civilian clothes. Subject burned his uniform.

"At the end of September, 1951, we were taken to Bautzen from Potsdam and we stayed at the Hotel Stadt Bautzen for approximately six weeks. We were given Stateless Passports as documentation. We were allowed to go anywhere in Bautzen, but were not allowed to leave the city. Once a month the allied deserters attended a meeting. The meetings usually were for the purpose of praising the Soviets and playing down the United States."

Private FREDERICK LUCAS, ASN 31 486 479, a defector to the Soviets on May 11, 1951, who was apprehended by U. S. military police at Berlin on March 22, 1953, reported that subject, formerly assigned to a trucking unit at Hammelburg, Germany, came to Bautzen, East Zone of Germany, during October, 1951, with a blond German girl. According to LUCAS, subject only lived with this girl a short time before she left Bautzen. Subject is employed as a cook at Bautzen and appears to be quite happy with his life in the East Zone of Germany. Subject, continued LUCAS, is Communistically inclined. Subject is sharing an apartment with a local German girl. LUCAS concluded that subject maintains a library of pro-Communist books for distribution to other allied defectors.

[redacted] disclosed
that subject is a member of a boxing club at Bautzen called Post Bautzen. Subject attended the club every Tuesday and Friday night at the gymnasium of the Ost Schule on Maettigstrasse, Bautzen, East Zone of Germany. Subject is well liked by the German people because he is clean, courteous and of good character. Subject neither smoked nor drank. As of June, 1953, subject was employed as a cook at the Iowa Factory.

Private NORMAN J. LOWELL, ASN 11 210 257, a defectee to the Soviets on September 11, 1953, who voluntarily turned himself over to U.S. military authorities at Berlin on January 2, 1954, reported that during his stay at Bautzen, East Zone of Germany, from October 2, 1953 to January 1, 1954, he became acquainted with subject.

Subject has been identified by the following U. S. defectees who have returned to United States control as a U. S. Army deserter active in various Soviet sponsored activities at Bautzen, East Zone of Germany:

Sergeant First Class AUBREY K. MILES, ASN 63 761 49
 Private CARL T. BLAKE, ASN 15 278 196
 Private ROBERT D. BLEVENS, ASN 19 332 07

 Private RAY D. SCHULTZ, ASN 12 350 230
 Private EUGENE R. WALTER, ASN 66 683 21

[redacted] defectee to the Soviets at Berlin on October 11, 1953. [redacted] on January
 15, 1954, furnished the following description of subject:

Age	Unknown
Race	Negro
Height	5' 9"
Build	Heavy

Confidential Source T-2, a United States Government agency, advised that the following divisions of the United States Army Europe have no information on subject in addition to that set out above:

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated on information received from Confidential Informant T-1, another government agency which conducts personnel and security type investigations, to the effect that upon interrogation, JOHN JOSEPH SHEDOSKY, a U.S. soldier who entered the Soviet zone of Austria in October, 1951, and fled from Bautzen in May, 1952, after being held by Soviet authorities for a time, furnished information regarding Private CHARLES "CHARLEY" LUCAS.

SHEDOSKY advised T-1 that several days after arriving in Bautzen he met another former member of the U.S. Army. This person, member of a minority group, identified himself as Private CHARLES "CHARLEY" LUCAS, from an unknown trucking company in Frankfurt, Germany Military Post. LUCAS told SHEDOSKY that he had been kept under restriction for a long time by his unit commander in Frankfurt and one day he decided to flee to the Soviet sector. LUCAS drove his private automobile toward Eastern Germany and just prior to reaching the Soviet zone his, LUCAS', car broke down and he continued on foot, crossing at an unspecified point into East Germany. LUCAS claimed that he originally lived in Dayton, Ohio, and that he had been a truck driver in civilian life. LUCAS is employed at present as a baker in a Konsum bakery in Bautzen, Germany, and earns 350 to 400 marks monthly.

T-1 further advised that SHEDOSKY stated according to LUCAS, the Soviets assisted LUCAS in bringing his white German girlfriend from Western Germany to live with him at an unknown address in Bautzen. They have a small daughter whom they keep in a kindergarten because Mrs. LUCAS is also employed. SHEDOSKY claimed that LUCAS has the best of quarters and in addition to earning a respectable wage as a baker, he receives other earnings from participating in boxing matches throughout Eastern Germany. LUCAS said he had fought in boxing matches several times in the Soviet Sector of Berlin. He was said to be happy and satisfied with his current life and told SHEDOSKY that "as a Negro, he was living far better in his present environment than he would be able to live as a Negro in the United States".

CIN. 105-542

SHEDOSKY also stated that he visited LUCAS several times when LUCAS was training in the Freie Deutsche Jugend (Free German Youth) Gymnasium in Bautzen, and that LUCAS was teaching several young Germans to box. LUCAS informed SHEDOSKY that he had been in Bautzen for more than a year and that in August, 1951, the Soviets had sent him to Berlin to attend a World Youth Festival. The Soviets reportedly considered LUCAS a representative of the Communist Party of the United States and paid him and his wife all their expenses in addition to their regular pay while attending this meeting. In addition, LUCAS was given special protection by the Volkspolizei (People's Police) to make certain that no attempt was made by "gangsters" from the West Sector of Berlin to take LUCAS back to the control of United States authorities in that city. LUCAS reportedly told SHEDOSKY that as soon as the Soviets trusted him (SHEDOSKY), they would make his life much more pleasant.

CARLOS P. JOHNSON, a Private in the U.S. Army who sought asylum with Soviet Forces in Austria and later voluntarily surrendered to British Forces in Berlin, Germany, advised that CHARLES LUCAS, a former member of the U.S. Army, is now residing in Bautzen, Germany. JOHNSON described LUCAS as being very quiet and about twenty-six or twenty-seven years old. He believed LUCAS was a baker by trade possibly in the Army. JOHNSON stated that LUCAS is not a member of the Free German Youth.

Confidential Informant T-2, another government agency which conducts personnel and security investigation, advised that Private HUGH SHARP, a member of the British Army who had fled to East Germany in 1953, had advised that CHARLES LUCAS resides in Bautzen. According to SHARP, LUCAS attends the training school in Bautzen and is a member of the Communist controlled Free German Youth. SHARP stated that LUCAS does not intend to leave Bautzen.

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. HELEN GREEN, Supervisor, Payroll Department, Hobart Brothers, Troy, Ohio, advised that the records of her office reflect that CHARLES CURTIS LUCAS was employed in the Grinding Department of this Company from February 18, 1942, to August 8, 1942. She stated that the subject quit on August 8, 1942, because he could not get his payroll check in the middle of the week. The subject was reinstated on September 1, 1942, and remained in this employment until February 1, 1943, at which time he resigned to join the United States Armed Forces.
